Gentlemen:

I would like to offer to you an idea of mine because I have no way of experimenting on it. I also have no use for it.

Why not hide a small anti-personal bomb in the crown of a hat. This bomb would not be removed from the hat for use. It probably would be used only in emergencies.
This bomb could be placed under a false bottom similar to a magician's hat and a cover story made up along this line.

Thank you very much for your time.

Sincerely yours,

Jack Gregersen
